IT IS GENTLY SAID

That a certain young man has made up his mind to get married. That the young lady has not, but maybe.

That it looks that way anyhow. That Koloa is proud of her crack pitcher.

That the various ball teams will make a greater effort this season than ever to secure the cup.

That the Koloa team looks like an easy winner.

That Koloa will hear wedding bells soon.

That the chimes will be heard as far away as Makaweli.

That the chowder was one grand success.

That the music furnished on the occasion was excellent, but that attractions in another boat caused the fish to come aboard and "take a look see."

That star gazing beats dancing all to smithereens.

That Chef Coney was the best looking man in the crowd.

That he was also the most popular.

That it was chiefly through him that the crowd bowed up.

That he may become a subject of an investigation by the "white ribbon" muts as a result.

That the Lihue school will give a benefit performance for the benefit of the school.

That it will be a hummer.

That this fact is assured since the entire teaching staff will be included in the affair.

That the teachers are known for their entertaining ability, hence the prediction.

That the dance to be given by the Ilima Club in the Makaweli Social hall on the evening of the 31st., will be the social event of the season.

That all the hospitable people on Kauai, the Makaweli people take the cake.

That an invitation from the Ilima Club is never turned down.

That a better time than ever is promised, which, when past events are considered means a great deal.

That a certain bachelors' club is flourishing.

That it may not flourish long.

That the lucky fellow is not to be blamed.

That he would be blamed if he didn't.

That if the Japanese and Portuguese are good enough to earn dividends, they are surely entitled to a postoffice.

That Hanamaulu is the only plantation without one.

That it should not be forgotten that we rich, owe consideration to the class of people one finds in Hanamaulu.

That dealing otherwise than openly and frank with the public is about the surest way to warrant just criticism.

That there are those who are among our church-going people who had not ought to be there, and that there are others who are not, but who ought to be.

That it is hard to tell "who is who."

That a certain young man is accumulating furniture.

That this certainly looks suspicious.

That of course no one knows it.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Angeline Jacinth of Hanapepe to Mr. David H. Hulihee, an employee of the Kauai Trading Company in Koloa.

A Brooklyn public school teacher says that she once required a pupil to compose a sentence with the word "dogma" as the subject. The pupil, a lad of ten, after some deliberation, submitted his effort. It read: "The dogma has five pups."

Ragged Rogers (with newspaper)—"Listen ter this, Happy. It's been disklivered dat silk is made er tin, ol' termater cans an' de like. Happy Hooley—"Dat so! Den I'll wear me drinkin' cup fer a silk hat an' be in style."

"So you suspect that men are quicker of judgment in practical matters than women?" asked her friend of the middle-aged spinster. "Yes," replied Miss Cayenne. "Men have heeded the warnings of the newspapers and quit buying gold bricks, but women continue to marry for money."

If women could be granted a decade of happiness beginning now, a decade of lovers of their own choosing, men of delicacy and wisdom—thirty years from now there would be that poised and sweetness in the world that dreamers deserv for the future ages.
